ADDITIONAL STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgement of the Court that the defendant, JUDITH ANN ALOE, is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 50 months on Count One through 23 to be served concurrently with credit for time served.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years with conditions. Within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons, the defendant shall report in person to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime, shall be prohibited from possessing a firearm or other dangerous device, shall not possess an illegal controlled substance and shall comply with the other dangerous device, shall not possess an illegal controlled substance and shall comply with other standard conditions that have been adopted by this Court. The defendant must submit to one drug test within 15 days of commencement of supervised release and at least two tests thereafter as determined by the probation officer. The defendant shall submit to the collection of DNA sample from the defendant at the direction of the United States Probation Office pursuant to section 3 or the DNA Analysis Backlog Elimination Act of 2000(42 U.S.C.14135a).

In addition, the defendant shall comply with the following special conditions:

The defendant shall refrain from the illegal possession and/or use of drugs and shall submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to ensure compliance.

The defendant shall participate in a mental health program for evaluation and/or treatment and abide by the rules of any such program until satisfactorily discharged.

The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with full disclosure of her financial records to include yearly income tax returns upon request of the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer in the investigation of her financial dealings and shall provide truthful monthly statements of his income.

The defendant is prohibited from incurring any new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer, unless the defendant is in compliance with a payment schedule for any fine or restitution obligation. The defendant shall not encumber or liquidate interest in any assets unless it is in direct service of the restitution obligation or Otherwise has the express approval of the Court.

It is further ordered that that defendant shall make restitution in the amount of $1,482,000. The Court will waive the interest requirement in this case. Payments should be made payable to Clerk, U.S. District Court, for proportionate distribution to the victims. The amount ordered represents the total amount due to the victims for this loss. The defendant's restitution obligation shall not be affected by any restitution payments made by other defendants in this case, except that no further payments shall be required after the sum of the amounts actually paid by all defendants has fully satisfied this loss. The following defendant(s) in the following case(s) may be subject to restitution orders to the same victim for this same loss:

Kyle Novitsky

Cr. No.:12-657-01

The restitution is due immediately. It is recommended that the defendant participate in the Bureau of Prisons Inmate Financial Responsibility Program and provide a minimum payment of $25 pe quarter towards restitution. In the event the entire restitution is not paid prior to the commencement of supervision, the defendant shall satisfy the amount due in monthly installments of not less than $50.00, to commence 30 days after release from confinement. The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of mailing address or residence that occurs while any portion of the restitution remains unpaid. The Court finds that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine. The Court will waive the fine in this case.
